

Examinations from Without and Transfer of Academic Record (Transfer of Credits)

- Students dismissed for academic reasons can apply more than once to sit for examinations as External Student if meeting the academic requirements, the regulations, and approved by the Academic Board, and settled the fees (See Tuition Fee Regulations).
- Regulations in the Faculty of Medicine allow for transfer of academic records of courses from a number of universities including El Jazira, National Ribat, El Zaeem El Azhari and Africa International and that their results are accredited.
- Students from these universities can attend the National University courses or sit for examinations, with the consent of the deans in the institutions concerned.
- Students can sit for the examinations of the courses they missed or failed to pass at any of these universities.
